Individual Liberty

Tolerance

Democracy

Democracy can be seen as a state of society characterised by equality of rights and privileges. It can also refer to our nation's electoral systems.

Rule of Law

It is expected that while different people may hold different views about what is 'right' and 'wrong', all people living in England are subject to its law.

Mutual Respect

The proper regard for an individual's dignity, which is reciprocated.

Individual Liberty

Individual liberty suggests the free exercise of rights generally seen as outside Government control.

Tolerance

A fair, objective, and permissive attitude to those whose faith, religion and beliefs may differ from one's own.

RESPECT

RESILIENCE

RESPONSIBILITY

MATH'S CAREER OF THE WEEK

ARCHITECT

Architects plan and design buildings and other structures. You need to be confident with Maths to calculate whether your designs will work in the real world. You need to be good at problem solving.

To be an architect, you need a degree recognised by the Architects Registration Board. All Universities either require, or recommend Maths A level as part of their entry requirements.

Average salaries start at £30 000 and rise to £90 000 depending on experience.
